

Summer Learning for Incoming K2 Students
Directions: Throughout the summer, take time to complete at least 5 squares (try to get 5 in a row!).
 Some of the summer squares have a connection to the summer reading book Be a Bridge by Irene Latham and Charles Water.

Visit the Boston Children's Museum to attend an event such as the "Wonderful Watercolor Pencils" class Saturday, July 1st to develop our creativity and imagination.	 in the Book Answer the question: What was the book about?	Write a letter to Ms. Erin and Ms. Caroline about one of the best things that you did this summer.	Visit the virtual science museum exhibit focused on "Designing Future Boston" https://virtualexhibits.mos.org/designing-future-boston/	Draw a picture about one of your favorite summer memories.
Read for 20 minutes a day with an adult at home for a week.	Observe and learn about various animals at the San Diego Zoo using the live camera feature https://zoo.sandiegozoo.org/live-cameras	 in your Head Answer the question: What was something that surprised you in the book?	Sing the ABCs everyday for 2 weeks.	 in your Heart Answer the question: How did this book make me feel?
Choose a snack such as goldfish and practice counting as you eat your snack.	Visit the playground at Moakley Park and make sure to take turns using the play structures.	Read the  Summer Read!	Visit the Boston Children's Museum to attend an event such as the "Japanese House & Teru-teru-bozu (Fine Weather Doll)" class on Sunday, July 2nd to understand different perspectives.	Go for a mindful walk with a family member and think about what you see, hear, and smell in nature.
Visit the Embrace Memorial in the Boston Commons and learn about the fight for Freedom in Boston.	Visit the "You, Me, WE" exhibit at the Boston Children's Museum to begin exploring topics such as identity and bias in our world.	Practice taking three deep breaths when we feel upset.	Practice counting as high as you can count every day for a week and see if you can count higher each day.	Express gratitude and tell someone important to you why you love them.