

Incoming 5th Grade Summer Project Choices

Directions: Read The First Rule of Punk by: Celia C. Pérez. Then choose one activity to complete about yourself (or someone else if you choose to interview someone) and what makes you who you are/what influences your choices. If you choose to draw make sure you label and add captions/descriptions to your drawings!

Create Your Own Zine	Interview Someone (Write it or Make a Video)
Draw A Self-Portrait	Write a 1-Page Biography

- If you choose to create your own zine (or pamphlet that Malú makes in the book), you can use pictures and words from magazines or draw/write your own just like Malú does in the book. Make sure you are telling the readers what you are like, what makes you who you are.
- If you interview someone, ask them questions about themselves. Think about questions that will help you understand what the person is like and why. Think about their influences.
- If you draw a self-portrait make sure you are putting in captions and putting in a description to tell us what makes you who you are.
- If you choose to write a biography, write about yourself and what influences you in the choices that you make about your appearance, personality, and lifestyle.
